The Senior Class of 1971
of the
Gilmore-City-Bradgate Community
School
Gilmore City, Iowa
Presents
The 12th Edition of The
"ROCKET"

GILMORE CITY-BRADGATE

HIGH SCHOOL

*This Banner was presented by the cheerleaders to the student body
at the homecoming pep assembly.*

*A special thanks to the cheerleaders

The Senior Class dedicates the 1971 Rocket to Mrs. Lois Accurso. Mrs. Accurso taught typing and math in the Bradgate Consolidated School for 2 years prior to the time of the forming of the Gilmore City-Bradgate School System. Upon the merging of the two schools, she took over the duties of Consumers and Junior High math and homeroom teacher. Mrs. Accurso was most concerned with the welfare of each student and truly exemplifies all the qualities of a good teacher.

To us and the many students she has helped guide in the past 13½ years, she will be greatly missed. So in our small way, we would like to honor you, Mrs. Accurso, with this show of appreciation.

A privilege of our President is to introduce assembly programs.

A duty of our members is to supervise filling the pop machine and check the honors room.

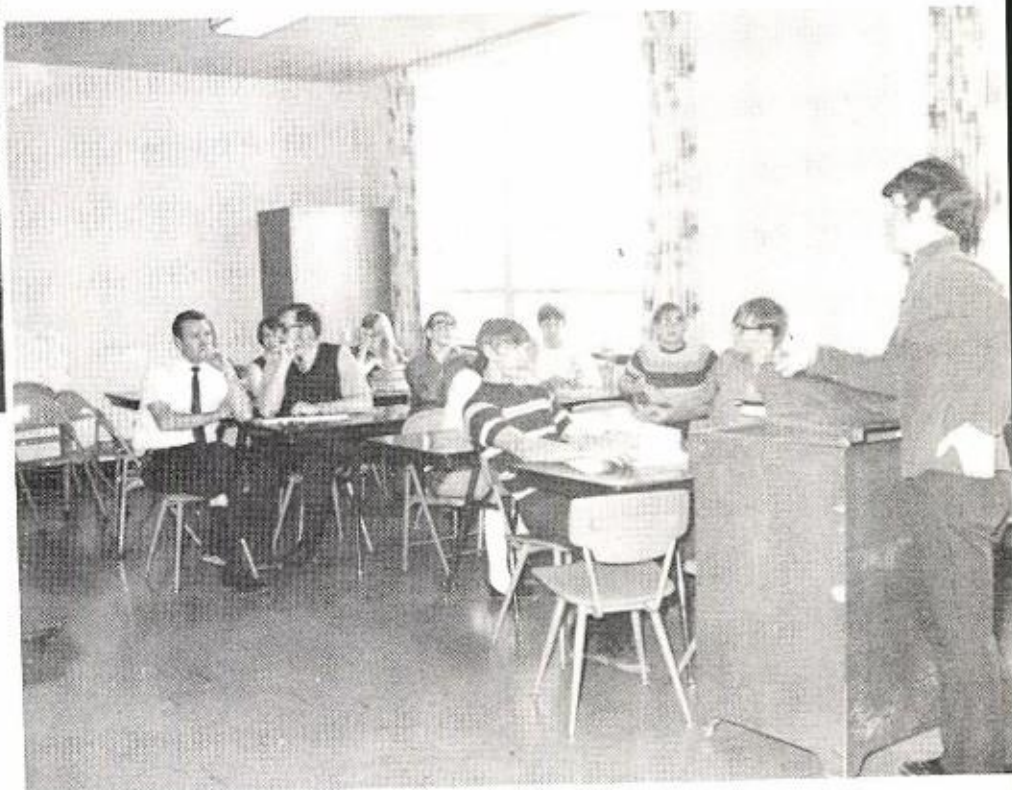

Time out for consultation.

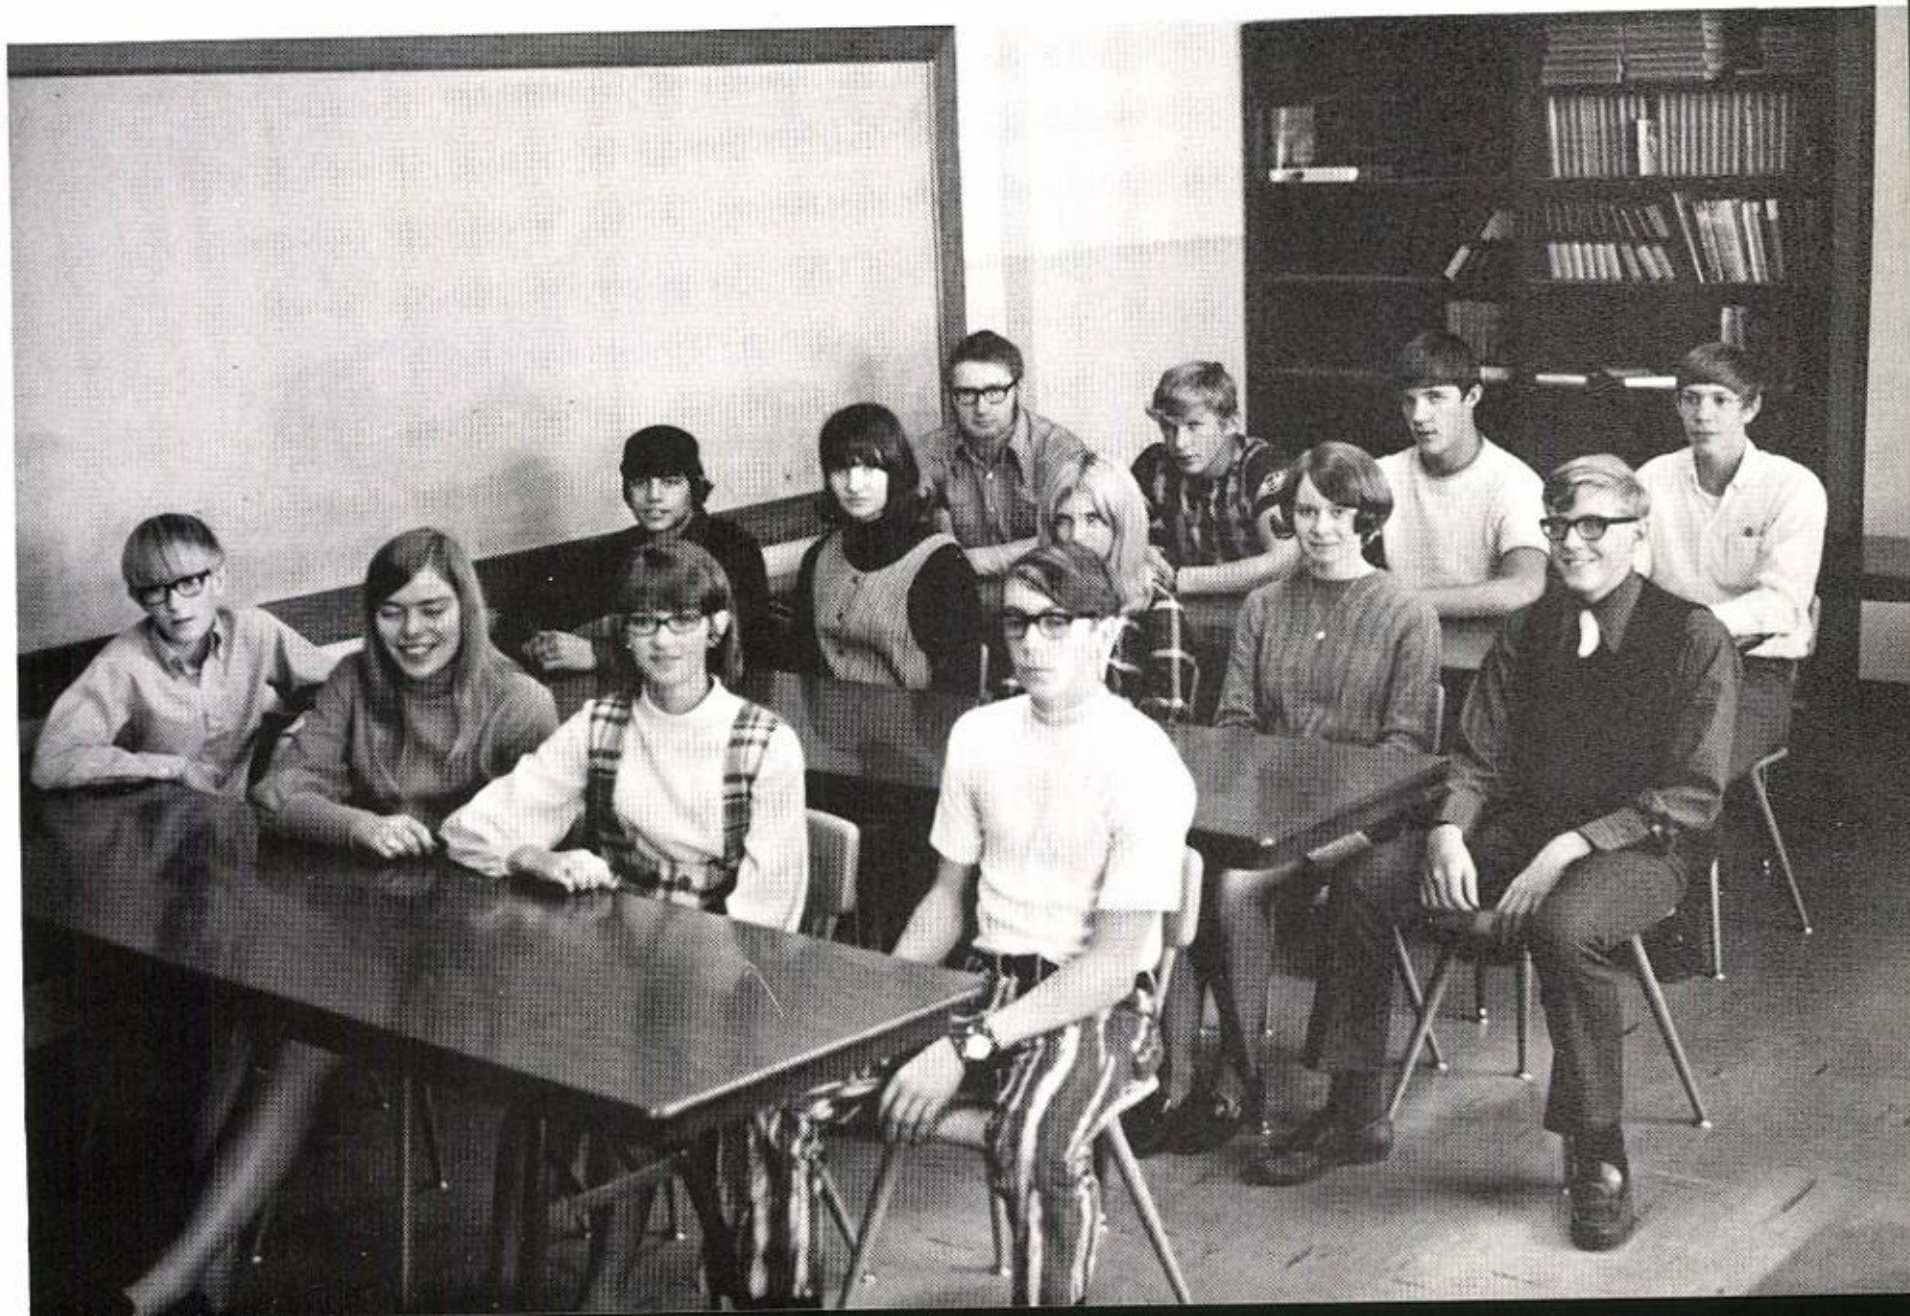

The way to improve local democracy is to have a simpler structure of local government with fewer elective officers, with larger authority, and with a more direct responsibility for its exercise.

Contestant's No. 22 Contestant's Name Robin Jennings Rating I
Title of Contestant's Selection _____
You did a good job with this selection. Change of pace and expression is good. You did the dialect well - your natural speaking voice has a slushy sound but apparently you could control it because you don't do it in dialect. Met your paper individually.
Signed Donna Hendges

A NOTE OF EXPLANATION—

Forty-six of these pages are duplicates, consequently some pictures were difficult to obtain. The pictures may be slightly wrinkled or of poor quality, but we were anxious to have a complete yearbook so did the best we could.

We appreciate the cooperation of these various news media to get access to negatives and pictures: Pochaontas Record-Democrat, Humboldt Republican and Independent, Laurens' Sun and Rolfe Arrow.

A special thank you to our advertisers—we appreciate your loyalty to our school and to our yearbook staff.

The conclusion of our school days is similar to the drawing of a curtain over a familiar scene. As other curtains are opened and new and unfamiliar scenes appear before us—we hope this yearbook will assist in recalling fond memories for all of you—the people of this school and community.
